North Shore office is up and running:

The needs of older people and people with living with a disability continues to grow in Australia with its aging population. Based on the most recent statistics from the ABS, 15% of the Australian population is now over the age of 65 years, and this figure is increasing as a percentage each year.

Meditech has recently opened a new office at St Leonards to cater of the needs of older Australians living on Sydney's leafy North Shore.

Meditech is an approved provider for:

- My Aged Care - Home Care Packages
- NDIS - National Disability Insurance Scheme
- DVA – Department of Veterans Affairs
- I Care – Lifetime Care & Support

Call us to discuss the care needs for you or your family.
